Table of Contents for HMATH/44
Meeting under the Integral Sign?

• Introduction
  ♦ Introduction: Four strategies, the prehistory of the Oslo Congress, and sources

• The politics of the Congress
  ♦ The Norwegian hosts: The newcomer with historical traditions
  ♦ The German delegation: Swaying between expansionism and isolationism
  ♦ The Russian withdrawal: Isolationism out of fear and ideology
  ♦ The Italian case: Mathematics as a victim of world politics
  ♦ The Congress in the Norwegian dailies
  ♦ International mathematics shortly before and after the Second World War: A glimpse ahead and back again

• The mathematics of the Congress
  ♦ Assessing the mathematics of the Congress
  ♦ The plenary lectures
  ♦ ICMI
  ♦ Conclusions regarding the mathematics of the Congress

• Appendices
  ♦ Norwegian newspaper items relating to the Congress
  ♦ Letter from Heegaard to Engel, 24 July 1936
  ♦ Congress report from Neue Zürcher Zeitung, 9 August 1936
  ♦ Leitzmann's unpublished report on the Congress
  ♦ Report by E. G. Kern, the Nazi functionary in Oslo, to Nazi headquarters in Berlin, 15 August 1936
  ♦ Newspaper profile of E. G. Kern, the Nazi functionary in Oslo, 4 December 1937 (with Størmer's annotation)
  ♦ Transcription of two recommendations made by the Subcommittee on Conferences to the Organizing Committee of the planned 1940 ICM
  ♦ Transcription of an attachment to the round letter of the Organizing Committee of the planned 1940 ICM, listing the mathematicians invited
  ♦ Bibliography
  ♦ Name index
  ♦ Subject index